

Classes, Workshops and Lectures

By S. Siobhan McCarthy

On-Going On Camera Intermediate Scene Study

Students who have taken the introduction to acting class may register for this weekly on camera scene study class where they will build upon the fundamentals they have learned and continue to work out and develop their craft.
Mondays 6-10

On-Going On Camera Advanced Scene Study

For working actors only. Entrance to the class is by audition and interview with the instructor.

Wednesdays 6-10

or during the day

Play Creation and Performance

A fun 12 week class for advanced students to create a piece collectively and then perform it live before a public audience. Students will be guided through the creation process, and the production process as an art and as a business.

Note this course can also be offered as “short film project” where a film is written, shot and produced by the students.

Voice, Movement and Mask- 13 week class where students are introduced to the foundations. Intro to a non-pathological approach to the work, yogic principals/ postures, alexander technique etc.

Please note that all courses/ workshops are adaptable.
